Fuel, heat & oxygen = fire; remove any one of those elements and you don't have fire.
Melody, harmony & rhythm = music; remove melody & harmony and you don't have music, you have rap.

Trump made the most powerful comment I've heard a presidential hopeful ever say "drain the swamp" ...the weight of that seems lost on most people.He will rock the world if he get's in,a one man coup!

Alex that's how any Jewish organization shuts anyone down by screaming anti Semitic if you say anything against them. Of course it doesn't mean all Jews and it doesn't mean all Jews are bad. In fact the Jews suffer the most from the deeds of that group of elite Jews that start wars etc. In the name of Zionism. Pointing this out doesn't mean you hate Jews

It's scary that people are supporting that sociopath Hillary and say Trump is the sociopath. He may be a lot of things but he's not a politician and was never supposed to get the nomination. He is one of the few candidates to tell the truth about the problems America faces. I think the guy really wants to help. I'm sure he knows that if he can fix what's wrong,

Question is "What is the government going to do about it? Answer. The government under Obama will do nothing because it is not in their best interest since they want Hilary in Thanks Ron. I wish I could tell Alex to shut the f_ck up for 5 minutes and let others, co-hosts, guests, speaks, talk, especially when he asks a question. AHHHH, constantly interrupting his guests, it's so annoying, however, I love Alex Jones, and will keep watching him. You are the Resistance. VOTE TRUMP!

I got a call from a pollster Sunday night. When I said I was voting for Trump, she hung-up on me. When you rig the poles, you are rigging the election. Don't go for it. It's all "smoke and mirrors."
